

PLEASE RSVP

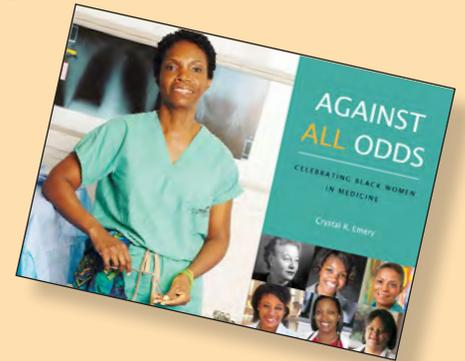

Join visionary author and award-winning documentary filmmaker Crystal R. Emery in celebrating the release of her book, “Against All Odds: Celebrating Black Women in Medicine”

Tuesday,
December 1,
2015, 5:00 p.m.

330 W. 42 St,
New York, N.Y.

Hosted by: Dr. Joycelyn Elders, SEIU 1199, and the Association of Black Cardiologists

The following doctors will be present to sign books:

- Dr. Aletha Maybank, Preventative Medicine/Public Health
- Dr. Barbara Ross Lee, first Black female Dean of an American medical school
- Dr. Icilma Fergus, Cardiologist
- Dr. Joycelyn Elders, first Black female Surgeon General of the United States
- Dr. Lynne Holden, Emergency Medicine
- Dr. Ruth Reid-Thornton, Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation
- Dr. Velma Scantlebury-White, first Black female organ transplant surgeon
- Dr. Jay-Sheree Allen, Family and Preventative Medicine
- Dr. Donna Mendes, Vascular Surgeon
- Dr. Ayanna Poindexter, Dentist

To pre-order your book, visit:
www.changingthefaceofmedicine.org or call 203.389.7466.

Please RSVP to
blackwomenmds@gmail.com

URU, The Right To Be, Inc.

P.O. Box 26925